Discuss IT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain...

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

I think after all the concerns our country has had and all of the different response to the things that are happening is going to separate citizens and turn them against each other and I believe it will split our country. After, all the concerns people are having in the world I think that they are focusing way too much on President Trump and his decisions instead of all the violent protest against him. For example, there was a crazy anti trump riot where protesters destroy property, set fires, attack police. This is a form of vandalism and is against law. I believe that instead of people to doing wild riots they should do peaceful protest where they can express there feeling without causing trouble and concern other people. We also have to understand that some people just don't have the same opinions as we do and we have to accept that and not have riots against one and other.
